

2019 Summer Meeting Program

Chris Reynolds, Senior Vice President, Nutrien

Chris joined PotashCorp in September 2003 as Manager, International Sales and has held roles of increasing responsibility covering Domestic & International Fertiliser and Industrial Product Sales. Prior to joining PotashCorp, Chris worked for seven years in Sydney for Agrow Australia marketing products in the Australian fertiliser market on behalf of various International agricultural suppliers. Chris received his Bachelor of Agricultural Economics in 1995 from the University of New England in Armidale, New South Wales and his Masters in Business Management in 2002 from the Macquarie Graduate School of Management in Sydney.

Dr. Scott Brown, CAFNR, University of Missouri

Scott is an associate extension professor in the Division of Applied Social Sciences and the director of strategic partnerships for the College of Agriculture, Food and Natural Resources at the University of Missouri. Scott has worked with U.S. Congress over the past three decades in determining the quantitative effects of changes in dairy and livestock policies and has testified regarding dairy and livestock policy issues before House and Senate Agriculture committees. In addition, Scott works with the Missouri Legislature on the economic effects of state policy options on Missouri agriculture. Scott received his PhD degree in agricultural economics from the University of Missouri and his BS degree in agricultural business from Northwest Missouri State University. Scott grew up on a diversified farm in Northwest Missouri.

Tony Benz, Deputy Director, Missouri Agribusiness Association (MO-AG)

Prior to coming to MO-AG in 2018, Tony was Director of Legislative Affairs for the Missouri Department of Agriculture. Now as Deputy Director of MO-AG, Tony is on the front lines at the Missouri State Capitol advocating for MO-AG and the business of agriculture. Tony will provide his views on the 'state of the State' as well as some thoughts on the just concluded 2019 legislative session and look ahead to the 2020 legislative session.